

Out of Town Notes.

CEMETERY NOTES.

Rev. A. M. Bedford filled his pulpit at Ebenezer Baptist Church Sunday a. m. at 11 o'clock and Sunday night and preached two noble sermons. Mrs. Nicie Rucker is on the sick list. Rev. H. P. Belcher attended Sunday School at Stones River Sunday. Miss Laura L. Washington spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary S. Aven. Mr. Oscar Edmundson of Salem, Tenn., was visiting relatives Sunday. While here, he attended meeting at Ebenezer Baptist Church. Miss Lizzie and Bertha Washington were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Orr recently. Misses Carrie Sue and Georgia Bell Clark were the guests of Miss Sallie Mary Brison Saturday. Miss Cassie Rowena Aven spent Sunday with the Misses Bertha and Frances Thar. Miss Malissia Washington is on the sick list. Mrs. Irene Haynes spent Sunday with Mrs. Nicie Rucker. Miss Frances Haynes spent a pleasant evening with the Misses Edith and Jossie Orr. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Murry were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Aven Sunday. Rev. H. P. Belcher and Mrs. Mary L. Aven spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Rucker. Mr. Albert Smith visited Miss Mary Aven Sunday. Mrs. Robert Rucker and Misses Addie and Jennie and White are still on the sick list.

JASPER NOTES.

Rev. S. L. Duncan's two weeks meetings were successful. Rev. G. W. Cain assisted Rev. S. L. Duncan also. Rev. G. W. Cain, who preached some excellent sermons. There were thirteen conversions. The people are pleased to have such glorious meetings. Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Cain returned to South Pittsburg their home. Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Duncan left last Saturday for Rickard City to attend a meeting. Mr. Dan Robertson moved to South Pittsburg where he recently bought and built. Mrs. George Greer Mrs. Calvin Robertson were the guests of Mrs. R. B. Robertson last Wednesday. Mrs. Vergie of Whitville, Tenn., was visiting her sister, Mrs. P. B. Robertson this week. Mrs. Mose Morris and family were called to the bedside of her sick sister at Battle Creek this week. Mrs. Laura Ford is indisposed.

TULLAHOMA NOTES.

Rev. E. J. Guthrie, District Superintendent of the M. E. Church was present and conducted his regular services which were largely attended. Rev. Guthrie has many friends here as he used to be an old pastor at this place. Rev. N. B. Morton, the popular pastor of the A. M. E. Church is making large preparations to have a grand Alpha Rally in next month at which time he is expecting to make the last payment on his most beautiful church. The many members are proud of Rev. Morton for he is a man of a deal of push—and a money raiser from the heart. Mrs. Mary Hickerson was able to fill her place in church last Sunday. Dr. Wm. Hebb made thing interesting last Sunday in Sunday School. Rev. J. S. Swift, the great Spurgeon of the Baptist Denomination preached an interesting sermon Sunday and all who were present seem to enjoy the service. The Sunday-School Teachers' meeting was conducted by Mrs. Bettie Hunt last Monday night at the residence of Prof. R. O. Laws. The Jelly and Light Roll Club met at Mrs. J. H. Holman's last Friday evening and enjoyed themselves from 3 to 6 o'clock. Those present were: Mrs. Beadie Williams and daughter, Mrs. R. O. Laws and daughters, Mrs. Birdie Jenkins and daughter, Jamie Mal, Mrs. J. H. Holman and sons, Miss Ester Derley. Rev. Sam Balliet, the pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church filled his pulpit last Sunday and preached to a good crowd of people. The Progressive Literary Society installed her quorum of new officers last Thursday night and each one was given their instructions and started out to make the Literary a great success for the next six months. Rev. Robert Dixon was in Fayetteville last week looking after his brother, who was quite sick. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Abell Bastain. Rev. Buchanan of Fayetteville was the guest of Mrs. Etter Shaws last week his cousin-in-law John Town. Rev. Scott of the M. E. Church is preparing to have a great Lincoln anniversary celebration in the near future. A number of the leading citizens will take part in the program. Mrs. Lizzie McCord of Shelbyville was an unexpected but very welcome guest of Prof. and Mrs. R. O. Laws from Saturday to Monday when she returned to her home. She reports having had a most delightful time. Mrs. Ida Hammonds and her twin 10 pound boys are doing well. The faculty, students and quite a number of patrons were delightfully entertained last Wednesday p. m. with a lecture by P. E. D. H. Welch. Dr. Welch took for his subject, "Little School Sins." Rev. N. B. Morton accompanied Dr. Welch and made some practical remarks, congratulating the school on the wonderful improvement made in enrollment and department within the past years. Mesdames J. B. Smartt and L. E. Smartt have left for Chattanooga where it is expected they will spend some time. Mrs. Emma Morton spent two days very pleasantly in Haley visiting her mother last week. Mr. Gideon, who has been on the sick list for some time, is reported better. There was quite a lively time at the Progressive Literary last Thursday night when the subject, "Resolved, That Women should have the Right of Suffrage," was discussed; the Affirmative won. Mrs. R. O. Laws is teaching instrumental music at her home and has quite a number of pupils. Messrs. Gideon Sims, Jas. Coiter, Jno. Waggoner and a number of others have made application to join the Globe family. The public school boys have organized their baseball team for the coming season. Mr. Ervin Martin was chosen captain of the team. Mr. Lee Thomas has some very fine jersey cows for sale. Mr. Jno. Eddens is making arrangements to enlarge his store and handle everything in the grocery line. We hope that he will make haste and delay not. Go to the Progressive Literary every Thursday night and be up-to-date.

CARLISLE NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Shamel have returned home after spending one week in Ederville, Ky., and Dover with their parents. Mr. Earl Shamel is back in our town to spend a few months with his brother, Mr. Marsh Shamel. Miss Mary Bell of Long Creek was the guest of Mrs. Bratton Sunday, the 2nd. Mr. Charlie Ervin was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rich Mark. Mrs. Mayohart has returned from Collinsville where he has been for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cobbs are all smiles, it's a boy. Mrs. Fronie Boyd is able to be out again after three months illness. Mr. J. D. Wilson has moved in his new home on Manners Ridge. Mr. W. M. Colyer left the 4th for Decatur, Ala., and other points.

PRIM NOTES.

Quarterly meeting was held at Forgeys Chapel by Rev. R. Vann, P. E. Sunday, February 3, 1913, which was closed with much success. The religious zeal was well manifested on the part of the members. Rev. Vann preached a noble sermon. The A. E. L. is progressing nicely. Mrs. N. E. Mayberry and her brother, Mr. S. L. Chearse entertained February 4, 1913. Rev. K. Vann, Mrs. Eugenia Foggy, Mr. Dan Jones, Miss Mattie Williams, Mr. Curtis Gray and Miss P. A. Foggy, at 2:30. A two course menu was served. The guests were nicely entertained. Master Fred Grimes has returned home from Gordonsville. Misses Lona and Madeline Williams were the guests Miss Pearl Foggy Sunday. Mrs. Anna George has been on the sick list, but is recovering. Mrs. Martha Nixon has returned home from Totty's, Tenn. Rev. S. L. Jones preached at George's Chapel Sunday. He is an able preacher. Rev. J. A. Cheatham has returned home from Union City, where he has been pastoring some time. Miss P. A. Foggy is progressing nicely as President A. E. League. She keeps the prayer meeting committee at work. Mr. Elmore Nunley and Mrs. W. M. Lewis are very ill with a gripe. Mr. S. L. Chearse and Fred Williams went to town Saturday. There Mr. Chearse purchased a new stock of goods. Miss Mary Church was the guest of Ala Joe Foggy Sunday. Mr. William Charter has gone to Nashville to do some carpenter work. There was a debate at the school-house on Tyler Ridge Saturday night. The captains were Mrs. Mattie Smyth and J. A. Kinzie. The subject of the debate was: "Which is the most beneficial to our country Preacher or Doctor. The preacher in this discussion won. The discussion was quite interesting. Mr. Willie Stewart of Leatherwood has been visiting his sister, Mrs. May E. Hambricht and husband. Mr. Marlton Nunley of Leatherwood was here Sunday and Mrs. Hubbard and Jake Anderson spent Sunday and Monday with their aunt, Mrs. Queenie Wray. Mr. G. W. Grimes has returned to Santa Fe. 802 1-2 dozen of eggs were sold of the produce house of Mr. S. L. Chearse and 842 pounds of turkeys Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stewart spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. E. A. Foggy.

CULLEOKA NOTES.

Rev. Caswell after a fortnight of illness was able to fill the pulpit Sunday. He preached an interesting sermon. Miss Willie Mai Baxter returned to Nashville Monday after spending a few weeks with her parents. Mr. Wortham and Miss Birdie H. Hunt were quietly married at the home of the bride, Wednesday evening, January 29th. Rev. Dean officiated. Misses Etta Alderson of Columbia was the guest of Jamie Mai Hughes Sunday. Misses Hattie Harris and Bessie Glvins spent Saturday night and Sunday here with relatives. Mr. Browne of Columbia was here Sunday. Mr. Thomas Reynolds is still on the sick list. Mrs. Hattie Rivers and children of Mt. Pleasant are here visiting her father, Mr. Jerry London.

CEDAR PLAIN NOTES.

We are sorry to say that we have many on the sick list for the last few days. Mrs. Fannie Simmons, the grandmother of Mrs. Horace J. Betty, who is about 95 years of age has been very sick but her physician Dr. Turner says she is much better and will be up in a few days. Mr. Jack Lash's home has been quarantined for mingles. Jack Lash, Jr., who has been very sick is better. Mr. Alex Primington is very ill. Mrs. Minnie Hancock, the daughter of Mrs. Sallie Winters is very sick. Miss Bertha Betty and her sister, Cassie were very glad to meet Miss Shanon in school at Lebanon. Miss Shanon left home Sunday evening for Lebanon where she will go to school. Mrs. Missouri Anderson and her son from Nashville are visiting her brother, Mr. Alex Pennington. Rev. H. J. Betty is having a telephone put in his home.

PULASKI NOTES.

The Ideal Art Club met last Friday evening at the residence of Miss E. M. Eramlette and had a quite interesting meeting. Several courses were served and officers were elected for the ensuing term. Prof. T. P. Turner made a dying trip to Nashville Sunday and visited his daughter, who is attending Fisk University and he and his daughter visited Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Crawford, 14th avenue in the afternoon. Mrs. Treasure McLaurence who has been sick is improving nicely. Prof. Turner has purchased a valuable piece of farm land just two miles from town on the Elkton Pike mostly woodland. The property is in a high class neighborhood and is a part of the Abernathy tract being recently sold by the Chancery Court for a division.

SHARON NOTES.

Our town is in a peaceable and prosperous condition. Services were conducted at Baptist Church Sunday by Revs. T. L. and N. J. Tansil. Rev. N. J. Tansil preached both morning and night by a very appreciative audience. The method in which the Tansil brothers conducted the services were both spiritual and instructive. The P. E., Rev. Moseley of Paris was absent on account of sickness. The people are looking forward to the County Teachers' Association which will convene here Saturday, February 22. It is hoped that the day will be pleasant and attendance good. There is a right good attendance in school now and the interest is real good. Our teacher, Prof. M. A. Dobbs had fifty words of spelling in a spelling contest for the 4th and 5th Grades Friday. All did well. Those averaging 90 and above were as follows: Eva May Hester, 90; William Percie Tansil, 94; Mary Ella Robinson, 96; Georgia Adams, 100.

GREENFIELD NOTES.

Quite a painful accident occurred to Mr. Charlie Higgs last Friday afternoon while working at the gin. He got his left hand cut very badly. Eight or nine stitches had to be taken on it. He is moving on right well now considering. His many friends are in deep sympathy with him. Col. J. Milton Easterling of Chattanooga, who is Grand Lecturer for K. of P's for Tennessee is slated for our town Saturday, February 22. Col. Easterling is a wide-awake Pythian and a fine orator. Should the public have an occasion to hear him they should certainly take advantage of the same. On Palm Sunday, March 16th, Estes Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star will hold their annual celebration services. This occasion promises to be a grand affair. Watch the Globe for further announcement. Easter will be a high day in Greenfield, no doubt but that all the churches will observe the same. On the fifth Sunday in March the K. of P's Calanthes and Juveniles will hold their Annual Thanksgiving. Much interest will be taken to make this a grand occasion. Watch the Globe for further announcement. Mrs. Bessie Dobbs, little Milton, Tea Willie and Lorraine, also Mrs. Minnie Belem left for Medina Sunday, where they will spend a few days with the Butler family. Mrs. Ellen Barham and sister, Mrs. Lizzie Davis returned from Tiptonville Sunday afternoon. Quilting has become quite a fad in "Sage Field"—nearly everybody is having a quilting. The Stewardess Board of Allen's Chapel A. M. E. Church met at Mrs. Lula Dobbs' home last Saturday afternoon. Quite a nice little crowd was present and quite a pleasant and profitable meeting was had. A cordial invitation is extended to all well wishes. The regular date of meeting is every Monday afternoon at some one's home. Remember that the Weakley County Teachers' Association will be held at Sharon Saturday, February 22. An interesting program has been arranged. Rev. D. F. Estes went to Hickman, Ky., to preach at the Baptist Church last Sunday.

ANTIOCH NOTES.

Mrs. B. E. Collier is sick at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jackson and little son, Leroy returned from Chicago Wednesday. Mrs. Burnette White and little daughters, Ophelia and Fumette visited their sister, Mrs. Will Smith Saturday and Sunday. The members of St. John Baptist Church of this place and pastor will go to Laverna to preach on the 4th Sunday of this month. Little Cora Collier was complimented Saturday afternoon by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Collier with a doll party. A three course menu was served. Those present were Little Misses Cora Collier, Annie Lee and Lucile Smith, Ophelia and Burnette White and Lucile Kidd; Master Kathaniel Collier and John Thomas Smith. Each one enjoyed the occasion. Mr. J. H. Kidd is still confined to his room from a fall. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sneed of Nashville were out to meeting Sunday. Mr. John Collier was in the city recently.

FARMINGTON NOTES.

Mrs. Susie Dryden entertained Sunday at dinner. The table was beautifully decorated with cut glass. Those present were Mrs. Tennessee Smith, Mrs. L. Sweeney, Misses Susie Dyson, Gertrude Rucker, Mr. Vernon Gentry, Mr. Ross, Dryden, Master Henry Lee Rucker, Bunie Dyson, Mrs. Mary Roberson, Mrs. Minnie Smith. Mrs. Susan Sweeney was the guest of Mrs. W. W. Rucker Friday. The death angel visited the home of Mrs. Viola Hopwood Sunday night and took her six months old baby. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh; blessed be the name of the Lord. Mrs. Weston and little daughter and son, Etha and Bennie Weston took dinner Sunday with Mrs. H. W. Rucker. Miss Susie Dyson left Monday morning for Bedford County where she will open her school. We hope she will be able to be at her post Sunday. Mrs. Eucler Woodruff is expecting to open up a class of music Tuesday at Milltown. Rev. H. W. Rucker is much loved by his people. He has received several gifts from them. Mrs. Emma Bowen's and Mrs. L. Sweeney were the first to report young chickens in our community. Valentine Day will be celebrated. Committee, C. Owens, V. Smiley, M. Roberson, E. Owens, M. Smith, L. Neal, A. Duncan, post Mistress B. L. Smiley, captain of the spelling contest, Master Henry Lee Rucker, Etha Weston, Valentine clerks. Mr. Roberson, Miss C. M. Hightower, Mr. Ross Dryden are able to be up.

SPRING HILL NOTES.

Mrs. Lona McKissack who has been on the sick list is able to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. Fonzar Brown lost their baby Saturday. It was buried Sunday. Mrs. Laura McKissack, Mrs. Annie R. McKissack, Mrs. Jennie Morgan, Mrs. Annie Jenkins all went to Klenbrue Station Sunday to see Mrs. Violet Jenkins who is very sick. Miss Cordelia Byers spent last Sunday and Sunday night the guest of Miss Roberta A. McKissack also Mr. Hobert and Will Olerson and Miss Ada Bonas were guests. Mr. and Mrs. Nep Olerson lost one of their twin babies last Wednesday. It was buried Thursday. Mrs. Jennie Morgan was in Columbia Saturday on business.

LAWRENCEBURG NOTES.

The St. John M. E. Sunday-school is progressing very much. Rev. J. H. Thompson is having quite a success this far. Everybody seems to be well pleased with him. Mr. James Ceggett and Haynes Carter were the guests of Mr. Ozeo Summerhill Sunday. Mr. Earnest Esters has returned from Bowling Green. He reports a nice time. Mrs. S. I. Summerhill had quite a number of visitors Sunday. Among them were: Mrs. Haynes, Mrs. Buchanan and Mr. Dan Williams. Mrs. Jewel Caruthers and husband spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kennedy. Rev. H. C. Welch is still on the sick list.

SO. PITTSBURG NOTES.

Dr. W. J. Astrapp spent Sunday at Huntsville, Ala., and returned Tuesday this week. The Henry Byron Literary Club held largely attended and interesting exercises at Little Bethel A. M. E. Church, Rev. B. A. Morris, pastor. The male quartet was at its best and was encored to the seeming surprise of the performers. At the A. M. E. Zion Church this week will be held another meeting and next week at the First Baptist Church out on the pike. Rev. J. Johnson, pastor at which time the choral class, Miss Gladys Robinson, organist will put on some fine music. Mrs. G. W. Cain and Mrs. J. D. Martin are making a canvass "from house to house" in the interest of their church rally. Miss Janie A. Lightfoot and Mrs. Ruby Armstrong were seen visiting the sick last Sunday. Mrs. Cynthia Rankins and granddaughter, Miss Winnie Smith have returned from Chicago and report a pleasant visit to relatives there. Dr. W. J. Astrapp has bought the brick building on the corner of Cedar avenue and 2nd street and will have it ready for use in the early spring. The musicale recently organized by Rev. B. A. Morris held its first meeting with Miss J. A. Lightfoot Friday evening, the 31st. Its second meeting with Mrs. J. M. Hawkins Friday evening the 7th. The Eulietta is a beacon light for our people here especially for the members and pastor of Little Bethel. Mr. J. D. Martin will visit Morristown College this week and will return having in custody his son, Merlin, who will spend the remainder of this session with home folks. Profs. F. C. Greer, H. B. Douglass, Rev. B. A. Morris, Miss J. A. Lightfoot, Mrs. Ruby Armstrong and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins contemplate spending Saturday in Stevenson, Alabama in attendance of Founders' Day which will be celebrated by the A. M. E. Congregation and pastor there possibly others will also go. Those who are sick are: Mrs. Molhe Cox, Mrs. Agnes Jolly, Miss Lora Marbury, Miss Sedalia Bivens, Mrs. Jane Jackson, Mrs. Ethel Bonner and Mrs. Speaker Lane. Mrs. P. Patton has been suffering with neuralgia the past week. A letter received here by the W. P. of S. M. F. from the W. P. of S. M. T. of Birmingham

This Wonderful Suit FREE To Our Active Agents

Made to measure—selected from complete line of world's exclusive Clothes—Fashioned up to the minute in style and workmanship. We want more good agents to take orders for our made-to-measure Men's Suits, Pants and Vests—we trust you and make such tremendously low prices that no one can equal our great values—we guarantee fit, style and absolute satisfaction or no pay—we take all risk—our simple system of making measurements cannot go wrong. Yes, in actual gold—Stunning Revelations—something so different, expensive and original that no other tailors would dare try to imitate our book of samples and fashions. It's remarkable how easy this outfit makes it to take orders and for agents to make money. You need only to spend just an hour or so a day at it—no experience or capital needed as we furnish everything free. We can see you now so don't hesitate but send us your name and address on postal today. We pay all express charges even on your own free Sample Suit—your complete outfit of Samples, Book of Gold, Fashion Plates—all Free. Your Free Suit will at once cause great admiration, they will all want a suit made like it—that's where we get even—it's great advertising for us—that's how it pays us to dress our Agents right. Send postal today to GREAT CENTRAL TAILORING CO., Dept. 461 CHICAGO, ILL.

Have you tried our new drink?

BEERETTE

(NONINTOXICATING)

A Wonderful product of the Brewing Art. On Sale by the Glass and Bottle at Soft Drink Stands. Bottled also for Family Use.

Delicious, Healthful and Nourishing

MADE ONLY BY

The Wm. Gerst Brewing Company.

states that the remains of Mrs. Silvana Johnson were received in best condition on the morning of 31st. Funeral was held at Baptist Church Sunday 3 p. m. and that 150 S. M. T's turned out in full regalia, etc., and that the grave was covered with floral offerings which came as tokens of respect and love for the deceased sister. The W. P. and W. S. of this places wish to thank the Birmingham lodges on behalf of Pasadena Temple, No. 44, S. M. T. for courtesies as well as sympathies extended by them to the husband and grandson and other relatives of the deceased sister as well as mammoth courtesies to the Temple.

CHAS. COHN A. L. GOLDBERG

Cohn and Goldberg LUMBER

Yards Cor. Fifth Ave. and Demarett St. and 10912 128 Fifth Ave. South Phone M. 188 Nashville, Tenn.

Sunday, Miss Christine Church was entertained by Mr. George Bufford Sunday. Mr. Floyd Rivers, of Mt. Pleasant, was a welcome visitor at the A. M. E. church Sunday. Rev. R. B. Flowers preached an able sermon Sunday, to the delight of all who heard him. Mrs. Bettie Gantt and Mrs. J. H. Weatherspoon are reported very ill at this writing. Mr. Robert Russell is convalescent. Mrs. William Webster is very ill at this writing. We are sorry to know that Mrs. J. R. Russell is indisposed. Mrs. G. W. Gunner is able to be up. Mr. Johnnie M. Tucker, Jr., is improving. Miss Lillian Warner is on the sick list. Misses Sadie and Edith Cross spent Sunday with their grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Gummer. Mr. H. L. Hudson and Mr. W. L. Thompson made a business trip to Columbia Monday. Mr. W. M. Johnson purchased a beautiful lot from Mr. W. M. Harris for the sum of $400. Mr. Johnnie Crosby returned from Louisville, Ky., and reports a delightful time. Miss Sadie Martin was entertained Sunday by Mr. Johnnie Armstrong, of Canaan, Tenn. Mr. Philip Martin, Jr., of Columbia, spent a part of last week with his home folks. Mrs. Phil Martin, Miss Rosa Martin and Mrs. Bessie Harris were the guests of Mrs. H. L. Hudson. Master Charlie Shipp entertained Master Porter Hudson Monday night. A delightful time was had. If you wish to have your horse well trained to ride or drive, see Mr. H. L. Hudson, who is well equipped for the business. If you want to keep well posted, read the Nashville Globe.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Mrs. Gertrude Madison entertained the Columbia Literary Club February 7th at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morton, corner Seventh and Embargo streets. At the roll call each member answered with a quotation from Dumax. Prof. R. G. Johnson read a well-prepared paper and gave some interesting and helpful facts on the life and works of Alexandre Dumax. The business session was conducted by the President, Miss Cornelia P. Johnson. During the social hour, which followed the business session, a most delicious three-course menu was served. Mrs. A. J. Morton and Mrs. J. H. Kelly assisted Mrs. Madison in serving her guests. Little Robert Calzo, a child only five years old, arrived from Chicago February 6th to visit his grandmother. He made the trip alone and arrived safe, though not by parcel post. He was well tagged and insured against accident. Mr. Ned Voorhees celebrated his 76th birthday February 9th, with a beautifully prepared three-course dinner. Those invited to share the pleasure of the occasion were Mr. Albert Voorhees, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Brown, Prof. R. G. Johnson and Prof. J. H. Kelly. Prof. J. W. Johnson, President of Roger Williams University, spent the weekend here. Mr. Lasterling of Chattanooga, was here last week in the interest of the K. of P. While here he was the guest of Dr. C. O. Hunter. Prof. J. A. Henry, of Chattanooga, Prof. W. S. Thompson and Dr. Arthur Townsend, of Nashville, were here on the 8th, the guests of Prof. J. H. Kelly. Mrs. John Anthony Webster entertained at dinner the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. L. James Johnson, Rev. Roberson, Mrs. Tinnie Watkins, Miss Artie Frierson and Mr. Will Frierson. Prof. J. H. Kelly spent a few days in Nashville last week. Mrs. Ula Green is confined to her room with a sprained arm caused by a fall. Mrs. Bettie Goode died February 7th, after a lingering illness. Her funeral was from St. Paul Church, of which she had been a member for a number of years. Dr. L. James Johnson officiated. The Volunteer Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.

Phone Normal 4808

RICHARD HILL, JR.

Attorney-at-Law

743 SOUTH HALSTEAD ST.

CHICAGO

Six Reasons Why You Should Use

RENWAR

Relieves all Rheumatic pains. Enriches the blood. Neutralizes Uric acid. Warranted to cure. Absolutely corrects constipation. Recommended by all who have used it.

For sale by all Druggists 50c per bottle

Manufactured by

Warner Drug Co. NASHVILLE, TENN.

OFFICE PHONE M. 1859 RESIDENCE PHONE HENLOCK 1900

Miss Gae, Call the Other

Richard Hill

Real Estate-Notary Public

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS AND PENSION CASES A SPECIALTY

410 1-2 Cedar Street Nashville, Tenn.